

Certification programs whose standards fulfil KRAV's standard 2.3.9 concerning Social justice.

These can be used to ensure that this part in standard 16.3.2 and 16.3.3 has been obeyed.

Please pay attention that you will have to secure that the referred KRAV-certified ingredients are included in the ethical certificate

Certification programs accredited by IOAS, for complete list please see www.ioas.org. This signifies that standards meet IFOAM Basic Standards and that the certification body fulfils IFOAM Accreditation. Criteria. For instance: "Naturland"

Fair Trade Standards certified by FLO-Cert (Fair Trade)

Ecocert Fair Trade (EFT) certified by Ecocert International or Ecocert France

IMO For Life and IMO Fair for Life certified by IMO

SAN Standards (Rainforest Alliance) certified by Sustainable Farm Certification, Intl

RSPO (only palmoil) certified by for instance Control Union Certification, SAI Global, IBD eller TÜV InterCert, see http://www.rspo.org/List_of_Certification_Bodies.aspx

SA8000 certified by SAAS-accredited certification bodies, for example

Bureau Veritas Certification

IMO

Intertek

SAI Global

SGS-SSC

TÜV InterCert

See: <http://www.saasaccreditation.org/accredcertbodies.htm>

UTZ (only coffee, soon also tea, cocoa and palmoil) by UTZ-accredited certification bodies, see <http://www.utzcertified.org/index.php?pageID=151>

BSCI-system: Special attention must be directed towards subcontractors who also shall fulfil the social requirements. This should be evident by "Social Audit Report".

Control Union Fair Choice: For composite products make sure that at least 96% of ingredients will be covered.

ETI Base Code: An estimation of quality of the audit needs to be performed for each particular case. Special attention must be directed towards subcontractors who also shall fulfil the social requirements.